

I have XM Satellite Radio in both of my vehicles. The offerings on standard AM/FM radio have become very limited in recent years. The kind of music and talk I want to hear in my cars has eliminated some of my choices. Satellite radio has restored my options and with good digital quality. The weather and traffic reports I get on FM are unreliable and not always available. Satellite radio has enhanced my listening experience and is very reliable. Please do not limit my options.